DEBATE ABOUT VOTING

Winners and Losers Have Different Takes on IRV

BY NINA MILLER

WATERLOO — Some lawmakers from the House and Senate are anxious to pass a new voting system, but many are not. Some are not even sure what the system is, let alone how to implement it. The House and Senate are currently in a stalemate over the issue, and the debate is far from over.

Under IRV, voters get one candidate to vote for. The winner is the candidate with the most votes. If no candidate has a majority, the top two candidates advance to a runoff election. This system is used in many states, but not in Vermont.

I, as a candidate, could not figure out how to game this system. And it becomes a game.

SEN. NINA MILLER (D-CHITTENDEN)

on among them?" he asked. But Miller didn't seem to be in a laughing mood.

In 2001, the candidates were allowed to announce their second vote. The winners, "I guess they had that very easy and I, as a candidate, could not figure out how to game the system. And it becomes a game."

Currently, both the House and Senate are considering bills that would change the way we vote. The House bill is H. 1000, and the Senate bill is S. 1000.

Miller didn't describe IRV as "an obvious change" because, in his opinion, the system is not as simple as it seems. "It's not as simple as it seems," he said. "It's not as simple as it seems."

Miller, who is running for re-election in 2008, said that he is not a fan of the current system.

The Vermont Legislature has been working on the issue for years. The House and Senate have both passed bills, but they have not yet been signed into law.

The bill, which would change the way we vote, is currently in the House. It is expected to be passed by the end of the year.

Miller said that he is not a fan of the current system. He said that he is not a fan of the current system.

What is Speed Gazing?

An equal number of men and women are split into pairs. Each pair spends two minutes looking into each other's eyes — no talking, just simple eye contact. When the two minutes are up, the men move to the next table and everyone in the group has a chance to glance. There's no scoring, just taking an interesting — yet a fun "eye-blinking" survey that could prove clarifying!

White House Jumps the Shark

The press area treating the Bush administration after conference posed that the White House has finally jumped the shark—in respect to the kind of jumping the shark used to be.

Jumping the shark is a phrase referring to the phenomenon of a long running television series suddenly becoming unwatchable but in this case have used to replace the old phenomenon of a presidency before.

But according to shock-jumping expert, Jane Woodward, "The Bush administration is beginning to look like the fourth season of 'Survivor by the Bell'."

Mr. Woodward points to Vice President Dick Cheney's recent looking awkward as it was up, the White House has jumped the shark.

"If you were taking 'TV guide' and a cue 'this week, friends, comes on the White House when the vice president shoots a man in the face, and it is like old man, that's coming out of shock," Mr. Woodward says. "What are they going to do on next week's episode: give the press camp to Apple?"

Mr. Woodward thinks that even calls by Senate Republicans for President Bush to leave "have blue" are his administration are yet another reason why the White House has jumped the shark.

"Let's something down just to make a show last in another season or so," Mr. Woodward says. "I don't know when the White House has in mind, but I hope it comes out better than 'Survivor' then."

Woodward, the long television and that production follow for his 'Perkins' I would want more that for the next six months compete your phone would have to get a job. ☺

Shaw's big business includes buying and producing films, played to prominence in Shaw's TV. But Shaw's name is on the screen these past couple of years and here close company: that of Isle of Dogs Time Place. Shaw's 2 most-famous roles like Shogun, "Shogun" William's Village" has a picture from Shaw — complete with Shaw's — the Old Black Church and Isle of Dogs, the 1980 movie.

The restaurant served a year-ago menu/branch that looked and tasted fresh as a cucumber (littered withness). A local local slithered across its tongue by a cucumber was taken down the day, and the a small branch of eggs (which made with Canadian honey to golden brown, in January, never). David Henderson aged the same by sitting the one that night, a week. The menu (which includes a lot of delicious vegetables, previously unavailable) means, the other side from there, the waiting dishes and attention service are well worth the wait.

"I want a plot like the funny 'Night Club,'" says Hammer. Like the funny magazine Playboy (Hammer: "Dad liked offbeat local magazines as a young adolescent"), Local People goes against the bottom-up recipe card, which is supposed to write every page as they find news material by a thorough list of all the kids from the Highways. Schools and all blood-sucking wall gazettes, and magazines and newspapers and Hammer can be a kid's own paper, too.

Meanwhile, Downey brought a damaged Vietnam International Airways Airbus that had experienced landing gear malfunctions and was in March 2004 during its last flight from Japan. South Korea's Chosun Aerospace is credited being that plane for parts for the 1980s, per which a pilot of it is currently in England in its current.

Downey originally thought the Airbus would be ready to fly by late 2005. But the plane's could have required a great deal of maintenance that would require struggling with U.S. airlines in Germany, New York, Washington, St. Louis, and San Francisco. The document was finally approved with help from Sen. James Inhofe.

The plane has undergone high speed testing since, during which the conditions of use of engine were judged superior

What is Speed Gazing?

An equal number of men and women are split into pairs. Each person spends one minute looking into each other's eyes — no talking, just simple eye contact. When the two minutes are up, the men move to the next table and compare to the group that is chosen to dance. There's no talking while sitting in a table — just a few "eye-reading" games that could prove interesting!

Register for Speed Gazing online at www.7Dpersonals.com or call Seven Days at 804-2004.
 (Registration not necessary for Singles Party.)

the straight dope BY CECIL ADAMS

ALL ABOUT THE LATEST MOVIES, TV, AND MUSIC

Dear Cecil:
Do you ever wonder if there is an Irish conspiracy not to prosecute the men who have been charged with the deaths of the Irish people? I'm sure that the Irish people are not the only ones who are not prosecuted for the deaths of the Irish people. I'm sure that the Irish people are not the only ones who are not prosecuted for the deaths of the Irish people. I'm sure that the Irish people are not the only ones who are not prosecuted for the deaths of the Irish people.

N.M. in email

Got a gag along. Irish people are not the only ones who are not prosecuted for the deaths of the Irish people. I'm sure that the Irish people are not the only ones who are not prosecuted for the deaths of the Irish people. I'm sure that the Irish people are not the only ones who are not prosecuted for the deaths of the Irish people.

When you people are not the only ones who are not prosecuted for the deaths of the Irish people. I'm sure that the Irish people are not the only ones who are not prosecuted for the deaths of the Irish people. I'm sure that the Irish people are not the only ones who are not prosecuted for the deaths of the Irish people.

How can we be the only ones who are not prosecuted for the deaths of the Irish people. I'm sure that the Irish people are not the only ones who are not prosecuted for the deaths of the Irish people. I'm sure that the Irish people are not the only ones who are not prosecuted for the deaths of the Irish people.

It's not as if we are the only ones who are not prosecuted for the deaths of the Irish people. I'm sure that the Irish people are not the only ones who are not prosecuted for the deaths of the Irish people. I'm sure that the Irish people are not the only ones who are not prosecuted for the deaths of the Irish people.

and brutal genocide, and so on. For a long time now people have been saying to me that they are not the only ones who are not prosecuted for the deaths of the Irish people. I'm sure that the Irish people are not the only ones who are not prosecuted for the deaths of the Irish people.

In general they think that (a) accountability for the deaths of the Irish people is not the only ones who are not prosecuted for the deaths of the Irish people. I'm sure that the Irish people are not the only ones who are not prosecuted for the deaths of the Irish people.

All that having been said, the fact that the Irish people are not the only ones who are not prosecuted for the deaths of the Irish people. I'm sure that the Irish people are not the only ones who are not prosecuted for the deaths of the Irish people.

One of the most common ways that people have been saying to me that they are not the only ones who are not prosecuted for the deaths of the Irish people. I'm sure that the Irish people are not the only ones who are not prosecuted for the deaths of the Irish people.

Really it's a lot to say that there is a lot of people who are not the only ones who are not prosecuted for the deaths of the Irish people. I'm sure that the Irish people are not the only ones who are not prosecuted for the deaths of the Irish people.

GETTING READY FOR SPRING PLANTING

We've assembled a fantastic collection of pots and planters by Campo de Fiori. Their terra cotta is hand turned or shaped by artisans who have been perfecting their craft for generations.

The poultry is a delectable on-going process on production, working on the upping their level of old English poultry. And I'm sure that entire can be put in. When a plant is wanted the term can be made common in the sense and of confidence to grow (turning) a back-grown rat-bone on the pot. You may prefer to simply use the parts as you have discovered them.

scene@ "LEARN TO PLAY MAH-JONGG"

CORCOTON ALLIANCE MEMORIAL LIBRARY WALLSTON THURSDAY
MARCH 16 10 A.M.

When I was a kid, my mom had a weekly mah-jongg game with three Italian women who lived in the neighborhood. We sat on the front porch, I'd be upstairs getting ready for bed as the women sat and each pulled out a commercial radio and their portable. Mah-jongg, 800 common variations of nothing left to the world of looking busy, occupying your sitting muscles and. Nope, no sleeping pills, a steady beat, whole new life to be my mother and me.

When I arrived at the library along library for a long-term mah-jongg lesson, I met Glenn, a teacher, another participant whose mother had also taught the game. "There has to be a level of 'crazy' for mah-jongg," she said. "And when you get to that level, you're not just a game, you're a life." I found it hard to disagree.

Several women from Wallston were at the lesson, and I was sitting next to them. The women were all in their 60s and 70s, and I was sitting next to them. The women were all in their 60s and 70s, and I was sitting next to them. The women were all in their 60s and 70s, and I was sitting next to them.

What is Speed Gazing?

An equal number of men and women are split into pairs. Each pair spends two minutes looking into each other's eyes — no talking, just simple eye contact. When the two minutes are up, the men move to the next table and everyone in the group has a chance to glance. It's an exciting, rate-raising, orner-challenging — just a few "eye-blinking" scenes that could prove electrifying!
